May Mixer

Back to the Country Store hosted PABA's May Mixer, which was a very delightful event. Jim and Juliette Wachowiak along with their staff welcomed guests with an amazing spread of tantalizing foods. Many of the stores offerings were available for sampling including six kinds of mouthwatering brats, flaky turnovers, delightful cookies, dried fruits, snacking chips and dips, and luscious candies. There were even six different kinds of popcorn (just a few of the myriad sold at the store). Back to the Country also has a large variety of beverages available.

If you have never visited the store, don't wait another minute. The store also sells coffees, teas, spices, a variety of grains, soup and muffin mixes, and many other baking necessities. There is a large specialty section offering gluten-free and sugar-free items. Make sure to check out the freezer section for a variety of baked goods and meats.

Back to the Country also has a section of the store devoted to homemade soaps, natural body care, and supplements. In addition, the store is an authorized dealer for Green Mountain Grills, which use wood pellets.

Thank You, Rookies Sport Pub
